Slim girl: I only show you white man's dancing. Laughing Boy: Navajo way is better. How much shall I pay you to.....Slim Girl:.....I thought you were a man but your mother's milk still drips from you. Crooked Nose:.....White Man's way. Slim Girl: You are as bad as the white men (40 feet)

Reel IV.—Slim Girl: Is that better than Wiskey? Laughing Boy: What is that? Slim Girl: It is white man's way.....kiss me, Huh? Slim Girl; It's a long time to wait (58 feet.)

Reel V.—Second Man: How'd you like nice cowboy for a change? First man; Boy, can she wiggle them hips. Second Man: Yeah.....Hey, what are you looking at? Get busy. Cut out the scenes: Hartshorne in doorway, lookes off left, Nods, Slim Girl looks off rigyt f. g. Nods. Hartshorne: "Say, you've been that way all afternoon, well I'm getting sick of it, (In scenes) you know you're ..... to be nice to me. Slim Girl. There are lots of girls.....live me alone. Hartshorne; you know I.....I've sent for three nice.....other things. Slim Girl. Oh please! say, What..... eating you? (In scene) Don't I always give you everything you want? I pay for this house don't I? Ain't I good to you.....Dont I give you all the money you want? Slim Girl. Aw, leave me alone. ...What is the difference? Delate incident where Slim Girl meets Hartshorne in Post Office (181 feet).

Reel VII.—Slim Girl..... But the white man spoiled that life. We three are alike. There is mountain between us and our people. Slim Girl. He learned the white man's way .. ...he ate the white man's bread and look at him! Slim Girl, they pay these white men, for what they done to me (31 feet).

Reel VIII.—Slim Girl. Well, you work hard for your money, you should have fun. I'm your fun, oh, thank you. Hartshorne. Or, I'm not jealous of any Indian husband but I often wonder doesn't he ever ask any question? Slim Girl. I have told you. So long as my husband has plenty of silver and torquise to work with-plenty of money to buy sheep-he don't ask any questions where I go—when I come. Slim Girl...what I did with him has nothing to do with what I did with you Slim Girl...It is best, I think The whiteman has.....I was too hard.....(123 feet).
